Cost of Attendance is the expected costs associated with attending school for an academic year. This includes school-based fees and estimated additional expenses. Cost of attendance is used to help determine student Financial Aid Eligibility for Title IV eligible students and can include additional categories for students with exceptional circumstances. Westcliff University uses an 8-month (2 semester) Academic Year The budgets provided for all categories displayed here except tuition and fees are based on the the California Student Aid Commission SEARS Study Data Tuition and fees are based on weighted averages of student credits and expenses from the prior academic year with 23-24 cost per credit *There was not enough data available to determine averages for on campus certificate programs tuition and fees, so online tuition and fee data was used for all certificate programs *Students who are enrolled less than half time will not have housing and food or miscellaneous personal expenses added to their Cost of Attendance budget when determining financial aid eligibility. *Students who take out federal loans will have applicable federal loan fee averages added to their cost of attendance. A break down of the average federal loan fees from the 22-23 academic year can be seen by program and loan type below. If you have questions about how your Cost of Attendance impacts your Financial Aid please contact the Westcliff University Financial Aid Department: Financialaid@westcliff.edu
