

ENTRY-LEVEL MASTER OF SCIENCE IN NURSING (ELM)

65 CREDITS | 5 SEMESTERS

Schedule

Weekday classes, primarily on-campus

Some nights or weekends possible for clinical rotations

Clinical courses start in first semester

Admissions Requirements

An approved Bachelor's or Master's degree from an accredited institution

2.75 GPA

Prestigious clinical sites in Inland Empire and
Los Angeles counties

NCLEX EXAM
PREP STARTS
ON DAY 1!

BEAUTIFUL, BRAND-NEW CAMPUS IN THE HEART OF CORONA!

CAREER OUTCOMES

Graduating with an Entry-Level Master of Science in Nursing (ELM) and obtaining a Registered Nurse (RN) license in California opens up a diverse array of career opportunities in various healthcare settings.

Entry-Level

Registered Nurse: Direct Patient Care Role

Hospital Staff Nurse (Medical-Surgical, ICU, ER, Labor & Delivery, Pediatrics, etc.)

Clinic or Ambulatory Care Nurse

Home Health Nurse

Long-Term Care or Rehabilitation Nurse

CONTACT US TODAY!

nursinginfo@westcliff.edu

951-268-5998

nursinginfo@westcliff.edu | 951-268-5998
4140 Temescal Canyon Rd, Corona, CA 92883

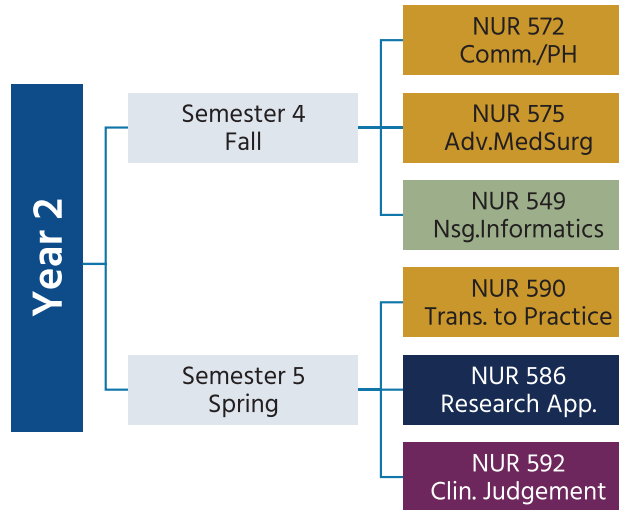

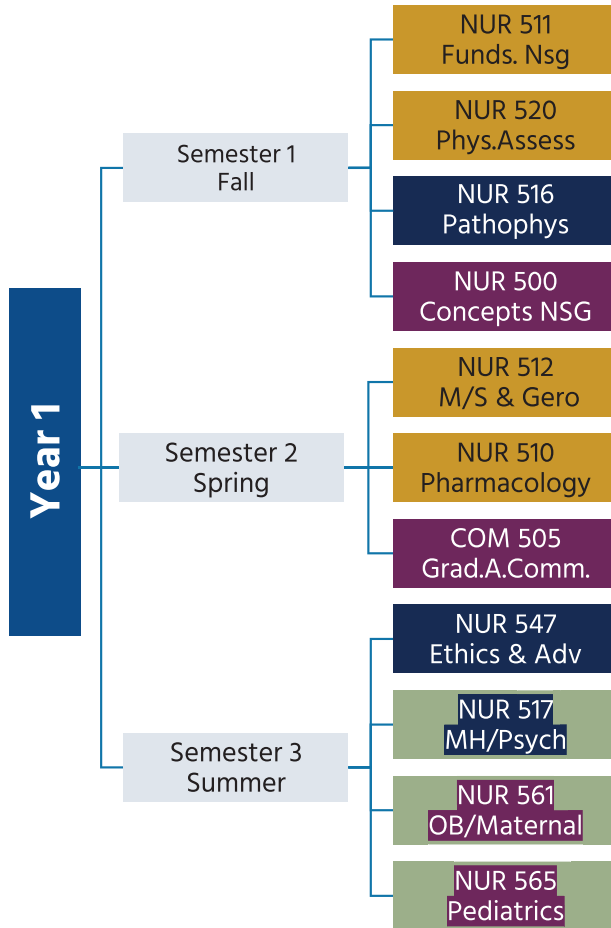

BRN Approved. Westcliff University is regionally accredited by WSCUC.

westcliff.edu/nursing

February 2026

ELM COURSE PLAN

Designated Prerequisite Completion for ELM Admission Eligibility

SCI 211	Chemistry with Labs	4 credit hours*
SCI 221	Anatomy & Physiology I with Lab	4 credit hours*
SCI 223	Anatomy & Physiology II with Lab	4 credit hours*
SCI 231	Applied Microbiology with Lab	4 credit hours*
COM 206	Speech, Debate, and Ethics	3 credit hours
COM 207	Critical Thinking & Research	3 credit hours
SBS 210	Psychology, Motivation, and Decision Making	3 credit hours
SBS 230	Developmental Sociological Perspective	3 credit hours
MTH 130	Intro to Life Science Statistics	3 credit hours

*Total credit hours from theory (3 credit hours) + laboratory (1 credit hour)

Legend:

- 1st 8 weeks
- 2nd 8 weeks
- Full Semester (16 weeks)
- Option to take 1st | 2nd of semester
- Best to take in seq 1st | 2nd

Westcliff University retains the authority to adjust course schedules and sequences as deemed necessary to comply with regulatory or institutional requirements.